

COLLABORATION—FROM CHOICES TO CHALLENGES

Forming or joining a consortium for chat reference means that your library can offer expanded hours of service or connect your patrons with subject and language expertise, or even a global network of information resources.

What could your patrons gain from participation in a chat reference consortium?

What would be some challenges of participation in a chat reference consortium?

